Bishops' Statements

State-sponsored executions - "For the Catholic community, this issue — like all life issues — is more than public policy. It involves our faith and the central principle that human life is sacred. Church teaching on the life and dignity of every human person should guide all our decisions about life, including the use of the death penalty. We are called to reflect on what the Lord's command, 'You shall not kill' (Ex 20:13) means for us today. ... It is time to turn away from a deeply flawed system of state-sponsored executions to a way of protecting society and holding accountable the truly guilty in a way that reflects our society's best values." - "A Culture of Life and the Penalty of Death," U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (2005)

Health Care Reform - On March 8, the chairmen of four committees of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops wrote to Congress, outlining their priorities for health care reform. They asked Congress to consider the following:

1. Respect for life and dignity
2. Honoring conscience rights
3. Access for all
4. Truly affordable
5. Care that is comprehensive and of high quality

On Friday evening and on Saturday morning we had two wonderful events; I'm talking about our second Teens retreat and our sixth Children retreat. The theme for this year's retreat was "We Will Rise!" While having fun our children learned about their Faith. Under the direction of Jocelyn Abyad and thanks to the few helpers, this year's retreat was a remarkable success. May God bless all of you!

On June 3, Saturday of the Dead, we will have a Memorial Service offered by all the Eastern Catholic Churches of Phoenix, in English, Arabic, Chaldean and Slavic languages. This Service is to pray for all our Dead Parishioners, Relatives and Friends and will take place at our Eastern Catholic Cemetery at Holy Redeemer.

Child-like Simplicity - "Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, 'Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven'" (Mt 19:13, 14)

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, ..." Mark 10:14

"To convert somebody go and take them by the hand and guide them." St. Thomas Aquinas

Do not forget the hungry!
